Next week is Vocations Awareness Week. Please pray that God will send us holy priests and sisters to lead us closer to Him.

LORD of the Harvest,
BLESS young people with the gift of courage to respond to your call.
Open their hearts to great ideals, to great things.
INSPIRE all of your disciples to mutual love and giving, for vocations blossom in the good soil of faithful people.
INSTILL those in religious life, parish ministries, and families with the confidence and grace to invite others to embrace the bold and noble path of a life consecrated to you.
UNITE us to Jesus through prayer and sacrament, so that we may cooperate with you in building your reign of mercy and truth, of justice and peace. Amen.

Hooray for those who are signs of hope to others!

Thank you to all of the substitute teachers who subbed in classrooms while seven teachers attended a teacher conference in Indianapolis.

The first graders had excellent behavior, as noted by a student teacher supervisor from USI. They were very well-behaved for the student teacher, Ms. Crow and the sub, when Ms. Will was at a conference.

Vann Rose, Patrick Williams, and Elliott Church helped clean up a mess after lunch.

A representative from Mater Dei came and presented 8th grader, Ares Adkins, with a new Chromebook on Friday. He entered his name in a drawing at the Mater Dei Open House, and he won the grand prize!
